

Functioning in the EU

Simona Fajfar

Further development of chemicals and biocides products management in the Republic of Serbia

The Twinning project is financed by the European Union

4.1/2, Belgrade, June 2016

Further development of chemicals and biocides products management in the Republic of Serbia

The Twinning project is financed by the European Union

Main institutions

- European Commission
- Council
- European Parliament

Adoption of Legislation

- Example: Adoption of REACH in a co-decision process
- Slovenia was very actively involved
- Influenced the outcome of REACH

Adoption of Legislation

- Slovene case
- During Slovene Presidency to the Council (1st half of 2008)
- Slovenia is charing a working group at the Council

Further development of chemicals and biocides
products management in the Republic of Serbia

The Twinning project is financed by the European Union

Council

- All delegation present at the Council working group
- Presidency is changing
- Close co-laboration with a council secretariat

Further development of chemicals and biocides
products management in the Republic of Serbia

The Twinning project is financed by the European Union

Council

- According to Lisbon treaty many legislative acts (for example: internal market, consumer protection) are adopted in a co-decision process (Council and European Parliament)
- Important role of the Presidency

Further development of chemicals and biocides products management in the Republic of Serbia

The Twinning project is financed by the European Union

- Permanent Representation of the County

Further development of chemicals and biocides products management in the Republic of Serbia

The Twinning project is financed by the European Union

After adoption of the legislation

- REACH case:
- ECHA is established
- REACH committee is established
- CARACAL group/subgroups

Further development of chemicals and biocides
products management in the Republic of Serbia

The Twinning project is financed by the European Union

After adoption of the legislation

- ECHA committess are part of ECHA/serving to ECHA
- Some countries still arguing here
- Experts groups at the EC level